Dear Roger

Mr Peter Barry, Minister for Foreign Affairs of the Irish Republic, has approached us direct to say that he will be in London to open a Fine Gael Information Centre on the evening of 24 May, and will be staying on until 25 May. He has asked if he might have lunch with Mr Prior on the second of these days. Mr Prior concluded that it would be right to accept this suggestion, and arrangements are being made accordingly.

Copies of this letter go to John Coles and Richard Hatfield.

Yours ever
