Dear Prime Minister

I very much appreciated your thoughtfulness in writing me.

I enjoyed our meeting together very much indeed.

May I repeat what I said in my wire to you, namely, how shocked we were about the bombing but how glad we were you escaped without injury.

We admire your performance immensely.

With kind regards.

Sincerely,

The Right Honourable
Margaret Thatcher, F.R.S., M.P.

My dear Mr. Turner

As you stand down from the office of Prime Minister of Canada, I should like to thank you for your contribution to the good relations between Britain and Canada. I recall with particular pleasure the visit which you and your wife paid to Chequers in July and send you both my very best wishes for the future.

Kind regards.

Yours sincerely

Margaret Thatcher
